

At Balmuildy Primary School ...

Attendance Matters!

Our school vision is to have the wellbeing of children at its centre, to work together to maximise their attainment and achievements in order to prepare them for life and work in a 21st Century world. Whilst our staff work hard to achieve this, good attendance and time-keeping has a huge impact on our ability to achieve this.

If your child's attendance is...

In a year, this means your child has been absent for...

10 days

or

2 school weeks

which equals

50 hours of learning

19 days

or

½ a day a week

which equals

95 hours of learning

28 days

or

Almost 4 weeks

which equals

140 hours of learning

38 days

or

1 day a week

which equals

190 hours of learning

47 days

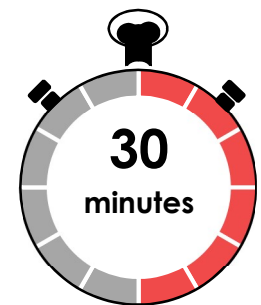

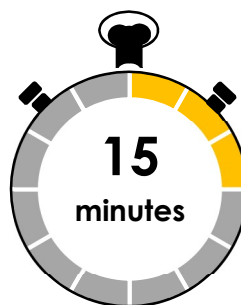

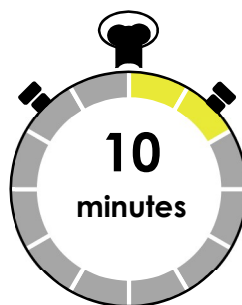

or

9 ½ weeks

which equals

235 hours of learning

Also, if your child is late every day by...

In a year, this is the same as losing...

3 days

which equals

15 hours of learning

6 days

which equals

30 hours of learning

9 ½ days

which equals

47 hours of learning

12 ½ days

which equals

62 hours of learning

19 days

which equals

95 hours of learning